CRITERIA	COMMENTS	POINTS	SCORE
MAIN POINTS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • FIVE main ideas chosen • offer clear explanation of grammar points • language and concepts are accessible to audience 	You presented a number of rules about subject-verb agreement from Everyday Writer Please remember, however, that the assignment guidelines asked for the five rules you thought were the most important, not all of the rules from EW; there were more than five rules in your presentation, which might be one reason that your presentation felt rushed as it covered too much without enough time for adequate explanation	10	8
EXAMPLES <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • come from sources other than Everyday Writer • appropriate to the points being covered • connection made to grammar points 	You chose some good examples to help illustrate the rules you highlighted, and you generally offered clear explanations of those examples, though there were a few places where a number of examples were provided without enough discussion of how those examples worked	5	4
DELIVERY <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • eye contact • voice—tone, pace, volume • posture—standing up straight, weight balanced • remained within the time limit (15 minutes) 	You all spoke loudly and clearly enough so that your audience could easily understand you Just make sure that, if you're reading from notes, you look up from time to time to make eye contact with your audience	5	4
VISUAL AID (POWERPOINT) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • includes an appropriate number of slides • slides are not too detailed or word heavy • visual aid enhances presentation 	Many of your slides were well done, with a good balance of words and images, though there were a few slides with more information than the audience could process in the time allowed	5	4
